

List of works - Robert Foundation

The Robert Foundation Biel holds in its Collection the following works

Léo-Paul Robert

500 water-colours, drawings and sketches of caterpillars

87 plates of birds (deposited by the Gottfried Keller Foundation), numerous individual paintings of birds, the early bird books illustrated by LPR, and numerous diverse paintings.

Philippe Robert

84 water-colours of alpine flowers (on loan from the City of Biel)

20 water-colours and drawings for his portfolio of autumn leaves, numerous paintings (mostly landscapes) and various single water-colours and gouache.

Paul-André Robert

180 dragonfly water-colours and drawings, numerous sketches and studies

115 water-colours and studies of fungi

32 water-colours of insects, as well as numerous drawings and sketches

60 water-colours of European and Brazilian butterflies

50 water-colours of birds of prey, gallinaceous birds, water birds and waders

15 water-colours of parrots

40 water-colours of tropical and marsh plants, as well as countless drawings and studies

30 water-colours of various sea creatures

20 water-colours of alpine flowers, as well as various paintings, studies and documents

Works by other painters from the Robert family, include items by Léopold, Aurèle und Théophile.

The Foundations Archive contains the journals and correspondence of Aurèle Robert, Julie Robert-Schneider, Léo-Paul Robert, Berthe Robert-de Rutté – indeed the originals and in a commented transcription by Elisabeth Reichen-Robert, a daughter of Paul-André Robert.